Contents

List of Tables and Figures xi
Preface xiii
Acknowledgments xix

1 Policy Restraint and the Denial of Death
Evidence of Denial, 2
Americans Part Ways with Death, 10
Summary: Policy Restraint and Death, 18

2 Policy Restraint and the Cultural Context of Death
Other Cultures, 21
American Culture, 26
Summary: The Forces of Restraint, 40

3 Policy Activism and Medical Technology: Emergence of the Right-to-Die Scenario
Interventions Create “Would-Have-Dieds,” 44
Interventions Create “May-Have-Dieds,” 49
Who Will Pay? 57
Summary: Medical Technology and the Emergence of the Right-to-Die Scenario, 64

4 Policy Activism and Medical Professionalism: The Doctor-Patient Disconnection
Hospitals Come of Age, 67
Physician-Patient Relations, 71
Avoiding Death Widens the Gulf, 77
The Future of Medical Decisionmaking, 84
Summary: Change Is in the Offing, 94

5 Social Activism and Health-Care Consumerism
Emergence of a Rights Culture, 95
Health-Care Consumerism, 98
The Women’s Health Movement, 108
Medical Research and the Power of the Press, 115
Summary: The Rights Culture and Changing Roles in Health-Care Decisionmaking, 122

6 Social Activism and the Happy-Death Movement
Ivory-Tower Developments, 125
Grass-Roots Sentiments, 127
Assisted Suicide, 144
Summary: Society Begins to Embrace the Happy-Death Concept, 164

7 Policy Mediation in the State Courts:
Consensus on the Cutting Edge
Legal Foundations for a Right to Die, 168
Incompetent Patients and Surrogate Decisionmakers, 172
Artificially Provided Food and Fluids, 178
Who Qualifies to Exercise the Right to Die? 180
Case Law in Perspective, 181
Summary: Case Law Versus Statutory Law, 185

8 Policy Mediation and the State Legislatures:
Common Ground, Divergence,
and Liberal Trends
Statutory Overview, 187
Common Ground, 188
Statutory Specifics, 193
Explaining Legislative Behavior, 209
Summary: Policy Forces and Policy Mediation, 220
9 Policy Activism, Restraint, Mediation, and the Right to Die

Activism and Restraint, 223
Policy Mediation, 227
Summary: The Last Word, 229