

For Gram

List of Tables, Figures, and Boxes	ix
Preface	xii
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	1
1 The Case of Jory Pion	7
Judge Sokolow Finds the Balance of Interest Tipping in Sherman's Favor, 13
Sherman's Attorneys Plead Their Case Before the Superior Court, 14
Judge Beck Puts the Ball Back in Sherman's Court, 15
Judge Weand Emphasizes the "Best Interests" of the Patient, 16
Judge Popovich Emphasizes the Importance of the Court's Role as Parens Patriae, 17
The Pennsylvania Attorney General's Profile Approaches, 18
The Pyrolic Argument of the Pennsylvania Catholic Confederate, 21
The Pennsylvania Medical Society Argues in Favor of Allowing the Withdrawal of Treatment, 22
"Choice or Dying" Goes to the Next Level: State's Protecting the Right to Choose, 24
University Hospitals Use Capital Expenses to Support of the Right to Choose, 25
The Pennsylvania Supreme Court Issues No Doubt "America Was Right," 29
Summary, 30
2 The Disregard of Consent	33
Building Blocks of Consent, 37
Decision Making, 40
Emergency Treatment Versus Suicide, 45
With or Without Versus Withdrawing Treatment, 50
Artificial Issues, 52	